Re: Marvin Cunningham, III Promoted to President, Long-Stanton Asia Division

Long-Stanton Manufacturing Companies, Inc., a global manufacturing concern, recently announced the promotion of Marvin Cunningham, III to President of their Long-Stanton Asia Division.

Cunningham, a Lebanon, Ohio native, is based in Changzhou, China, where he oversees a metal stamping and precision sheet metal fabricating plant. Cunningham opened the Long-Stanton Asia Division in July 2004. The operation has grown significantly through his leadership. He is the son of Dan and Marge (Gast) Cunningham of Lebanon, Ohio.

Dan Cunningham, President and 5th generation owner of Long-Stanton Manufacturing stated, "Marvin has built this division into a profitable international manufacturing concern. He has accomplished this through hard work and dedication. We are proud of his accomplishments and the opportunities his success has meant to all of Long-Stanton's divisions."

Long-Stanton Manufacturing Companies, Inc. of West Chester Township, Ohio was founded in 1862. It currently owns or holds ownership positions in two U.S. plants and five in China. For more information about Long-Stanton Manufacturing, please visit www.LongStanton.com.
